

CASE STUDY

Weinberg Partners helped political campaigns report accurate accounting requirements to the Federal Election Commission

CHALLENGE

- Candidates for governmental offices and PACs in the US are required to report to the FEC

SOLUTION

- We set-up and close campaigns, provide accounting and SEC reporting for state and federal candidates and PACs

We offer a smart solutions-based approach centered around your company's unique needs.

Candidates for governmental offices and PACs in the US are subject to strict reporting requirements with the federal election committee.

We have staff who specialize in this practice area, from the initial set-up to the closure of campaigns, and have distinguished ourselves as the leading CPA firm in the US providing accounting and FEC reporting services for federal and state candidates and PACs throughout the US.

If you are considering running for political office or want to start or currently operate a nonprofit, please contact us for a complimentary consultation.

Referrals available upon request.

702.793.4500

info@weinbergpartners.com
www.weinbergpartners.com